31 St Andrews Street, Cowes

£250,000

This gorgeous period cottage is tucked away close to the town centre and offers a bijou interior, decorated in crisp white and arranged over three storeys. Each floor is accessed by an enclosed, winding staircase with a twisted rope handrail, creating a nautical theme. The entrance level provides a cosy sitting room with wooden style flooring and a handsome woodburning stove as a focal point; a beautiful, centrally placed kitchen with integrated appliances and solid wooden worktops and a very handy, smart shower room to the rear. On the first floor is a pretty double bedroom and fabulous bathroom with a free standing bath as a centre piece, whilst the second bedroom is arranged on the top floor, providing a bedroom area and study area, either side of the stairs. The home has a small, enclosed courtyard garden which backs on to a council car park, where you can apply for an annual parking permit. A true gem, right in the heart of Cowes town centre. Freehold. Council Tax Band - A. EPC D-69.
