This individually designed property has been well maintained by the current owners and offers surprisingly spacious living areas with gas central heating and double glazing. The home is introduced by an impressive vaulted ceiling hallway with the galleried landing above. The comfortable lounge/dining room has a sunny triple aspect with a wonderfully leafy outlook and pretty real flame fire as the focal point. The attractive kitchen is fitted with cottage style cream units and leads through to a useful lobby with utility space and the valuable asset of a ground floor shower room. This along with a spacious third double bedroom (or separate sitting/dining room) on this level makes the property suitable for single storey living, if required. On the first floor are two very well proportioned double bedrooms with good height sloping ceilings and a comprehensive range of fitted wardrobes. A pretty study or bedroom four has a Velux window to the rear. These rooms are serviced by a smart bathroom. The home is surrounded by its own beautifully designed, planted and maintained gardens. These are arranged as individual 'rooms' with year round colour and structure playing host to an abundance of birds (and a cheeky squirrel!). A sloping driveway to the front provides parking and gives access to the garage via a remote controlled door. FREEHOLD. COUNCIL TAX BAND E. EPC D-63
