Built in circa 1870 and boasting FAR REACHING SEA VIEWS from the rear is this spacious, three-storey Portland Stone semi-detached home, boasting four bedrooms, two reception rooms and a basement. Adorned with charming period features, including exposed Stone blockwork and benefitting from a driveway and a sprawling garden with a studio.

Accommodation;

Entry is gained via vestibule with original style Victorian floor tiles and leads through to the ground floor. The front of the property enjoys a snug reception room with ample character features such as deep set window, feature Portland Stone Fireplace and beamed ceiling.

Adjacent to the snug is the kitchen, a well proportioned room with ample wood effect units, an island, an integrated eye level oven, inset gas hob and features high ceilings and a further Portland Stone Feature wall. An opening provides access through to the main living space, a good sized room with sliding doors leading out to a decked area. From this space, an internal door provides access into the fourth bedroom.

The ground floor bedroom is a sizeable space with ample built in storage, plenty of room for a double bed and enjoys a sliding door out onto a decked area, a 'Jack and Jill' ensuite bathroom connects to a utility room with ample storage and space for washing machine.

To the first floor are two double bedrooms and a family bathroom. Both bedrooms enjoy ample character features such as beautiful exposed Portland Stone walls, high ceilings and wood panelling. The primary room also enjoys the added benefit of a large built in, floor to ceiling wardrobe.

The good size bathroom is made up of a pedestal wash hand basin, WC, panel enclosed bath and a separate shower cubicle.

To the top floor is a final bedroom, a large room with ample storage, wood cladding and an exposed Portland Stone gable end. A dormer window provides near 180 degree sea views towards Lulworth Cove.
