3D VIRTUAL TOUR AVAILABLE!

A rare opportunity to purchase a beautifully presented energy efficient home, overlooking the historic Pennsylvania Castle's manicured grounds. The property is less than ten minutes' walk from the popular village of Easton with cafes, shops, pubs and an excellent bus service to Weymouth (with its frequent, regular rail links to London). The property is on the famous open-top Jurassic Coast summer bus route which visits Portland Bill Lighthouse, Portland Sailing Academy and Portland Harbour (a world class water sports location and the venue for the 2012 Olympic Sailing, now frequented by both amateur and Olympic class windsurfers and kite-surfers) as well as Weymouth's award-winning beach and picturesque Harbour Area. Only a short stroll away is the popular, scenic Church Ope Cove and many outdoor pursuits, such as wild swimming, rock-climbing, bird watching, hiking and horse-riding. With some of the most spectacular coastal views and walks in England, only a few steps from your front door, this property makes an ideal main or holiday home.

An entrance hallway with storage cupboard provides stairs to the first floor, a doorway into the lounge and doorway into the kitchen/diner.

The lounge has two front aspect windows with views of Pennsylvania Castle. There is a doorway to the downstairs WC/walk-in shower room.

The kitchen/diner spans the width of the property and boasts a modern fitted kitchen with integrated FRIDGE FREEZER, DISHWASHER, WASHING MACHINE, EYE LEVEL DOUBLE OVEN, INDUCTION HOB with EXTRACTOR HOOD over, and ample storage units. There is space for a large dining table. French doors open onto the patio garden.

On the first floor is the main double bedroom; a lovely sized room with three windows, each with views towards Pennsylvania Castle. There is ample space for a built-in wardrobe system and a King-size bed.
