

Chelsea Harbour Chelsea SW10

This 61 ft. Wide Beam was originally built in 2004 and has been recently refurbished and modernized. The boat is offered in excellent condition and is ready to move into immediately. It features an enormous open-plan living area and galley with stylish plantation shutters throughout.

Perfect for an individual or couple as a pied-à-terre, the boat feels very spacious. The cabin provides plenty of storage, and the heads feature a shower and electric toilet. The boat also benefits from a cockpit and covers, providing extra storage space for bikes, coats, etc.

Chelsea Harbour is served by Imperial Wharf national rail station, which links to the tube. It provides direct rail links to Clapham Junction and Willesden Junction, as well as Southern services to Milton Keynes Central and East Croydon. There are bus services, including bus route C3, which links Chelsea Harbour with Earl's Court, Fulham, and Clapham Junction.
