Description

Thoughtfully extended with modern living in mind is this superb three bedroom semi-detached family house conveniently located in a cul-de-sac within easy walking distance of high street shops, local schools and Norbury Park close by. The property further benefits from a landscaped garden and driveway parking to the front.

A part glazed front door opens onto an inviting entrance hall with a handy cloakroom/shower room off. The kitchen/breakfast/living room offers a superb light and airy open plan living space for all the family and makes an ideal entertaining space. The kitchen area features a good range of marble effect worktops for cooking preparation, ample cupboards for storage and space for freestanding kitchen appliances and a sociable island workstation. Twin lanterns offer plenty of natural light. Space is also available for a sizable dining table and a relaxed seating area off complements the living space neatly. Double doors further lead onto the patio and garden.

The first floor is approached by a rising staircase. Three good sized bedrooms feature and are served by a family bathroom suite. Outside the front of the property benefits from driveway parking and side access leads to an Indian sandstone patio with steps that lead to a lawn area with a timber garden store.

Situation

The property is situated in a cul-de-sac location within easy reach Bookham High Street which offers a wide range of shops and amenities including a bakers, butchers, fishmongers, greengrocers, post office, two small supermarkets and several delicatessens and coffee shops. There is also a library and doctors and dental surgeries.

Within the locality there are a number of excellent local schools both private and state funded.

There is a wide selection of recreational facilities available in the area such as Norbury Park, Bocketts Farm, Ranmore and Polesden Lacey. The area generally abounds with a wealth of open countryside much of which is in the green belt and owned by the National Trust.

The property's location affords convenient access to the A3, Junction 9 of the M25 and is almost equidistant between Heathrow and Gatwick International Airports. Frequent rail services to London/ Guildford/ Leatherhead are available from Bookham Station.
