This extended bungalow offering a degree of privacy, boasts well proportioned light and airy rooms throughout providing views over the countryside. Shallow steps up to the front door lead into the hallway, with built in storage and a guest toilet off and access to all rooms. The living room is well proportioned and takes pride of place at the rear of the property, enjoying far reaching views over the open countryside via patio doors. The living space is complemented by a spacious kitchen/dining room with further patio doors drawing the eye to the open countryside beyond. There are ample built in units with complementary worktops housing a new built-under fridge and freezer, and extractor with space for a washing machine and cooker. At the far end of the room is ample space to accommodate a family dining table and freestanding furniture to suit.

There are three double bedrooms, one boasting a dual aspect, the other two enjoying views over the countryside, all providing ample room for a range of freestanding furniture. A stylishly refitted accessible walk-in shower room, with a vanity sink and ample storage serves all three bedrooms.

Outside. The garden is mainly laid to lawn with a well placed patio, decking adjoining the house, perfect for outside entertaining and side access. Established boundary planting provides much privacy whilst being sympathetically planted to the rear, to make the most of the striking countryside views. Tucked under the extension to the property is a very useful sheltered, height restricted, storage space, ideal for garden furniture, suitcases, bikes and more. Side access leads back to the front garden, driveway and double garage.
