Description

The carriage driveway leads to the front door, and in to an impressive reception hall, with garden views. There is a cloakroom and study coming off the hall, alongside doors to the luxurious extended open plan hub of the home. Flooded by natural light from 9 bi-folding doors to the designer garden. There is an impressive fitted kitchen with a built in breakfast bar, Miele appliances including 5 ring gas hob, double oven, hot draw, dishwasher, fridge and freezer and a wine cooler. There are ample wall and base units and complementary worktops. There is also a large family dining area and a generous seating/TV area. From here are glazed double doors through to the formal sitting room. Off both the hall and kitchen is a large utility area with space for a built-in washing machine and tumble dryer, complemented by a boot room with walls of cloak storage. There is an additional downstairs bathroom and a side door to the garden. There is a further snug room overlooking the garden plus another large play/games/family room to the front aspect. This indulgent side of the house effortlessly lends itself to conversion of a ground floor annex, subject to normal permissions.

Off a galleried landing is loft access, an airing cupboard, a double en-suite guest bedroom, three further double bedrooms, each with built in wardrobes plus an impressive principal suite with tranquil views over the garden, a large en-suite shower room and opening through to a luxury walk in dressing room with central dressing stations and an impressive amount of built in wardrobes. There is also a separate spacious family bathroom with a separate shower serving this floor.

Outside is a sunny designer landscaped garden, mostly levelled to provide a vast central lawn, complemented by a newly installed outdoor garden kitchen, approached by artistically laid herringbone paved pathway, and featuring space for; a Napoleon gas BBQ, Gozney pizza oven, and including a built in fridge and sink, with ample stone worktops, sheltered by a stylish gazebo covering an alfresco dining space. There are mature green boundaries providing much privacy, a side gate, a vast patio adjoining the house with stone boundary flower beds and steps for interest. The owners have also added a solid outside storage room to the side of the house and a bespoke built insulated garden room with picture window; this is currently used as a gym but ideal as a working from home space. The garden room incorporates a hidden shed for further garden storage.
