3. The Firs, Wilburton, Cambridgeshire, CB6 3FL

Impressive and superbly presented detached house in a highly sought after village location.

An impressive and superbly detached family house situated off a quiet cul-de-sac, within the small but highly sought after village of Wilburton. The property has been subject to a number of significant improvements over recent years, most notably the reconfiguring and re-fitting of the kitchen to provide an outstanding, open plan kitchen/breakfast room/dining area, incorporating a stylish, contemporary kitchen creating the ideal space for family and social entertaining. There is low maintenance, engineered oak flooring throughout the majority of the ground floor and all windows are fitted with either made to measure shutters or blinds. Heating is oil fired to radiators and the windows are sealed unit double glazed. There is off street parking for several vehicles, a detached single garage and a fully enclosed, private garden to the rear. The Council Tax rating is currently Band F and the EPC rating is currently Band C.

Wilburton is a thriving village situated approximately 12 miles north of Cambridge and 7 miles south of Ely. Local facilities include a highly regarded primary school, theatre group, village hall, social club, restaurant, extensive garden centre and recreation ground, which annually hosts a hugely successful beer festival and firework display.
