

86. St. Anthonys Road
Kettering, NN15 5JB

Simpson & Partners

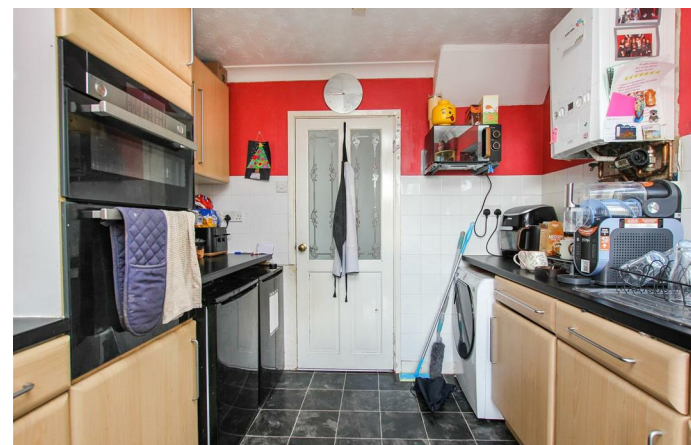

This attractive three bedroom semi-detached property is situated on the sought-after Ise Lodge development and comes complete with the convenience of off road parking and a single garage.

The home features modern upvc double glazing and gas radiator heating. The heart of the property is an impressive 18' mx by 20' mx living/dining room that provides ample space for relaxation and entertaining, with direct access through a door to the rear garden. The kitchen comes equipped with built-in appliances, making it perfect for everyday living and culinary enthusiasts alike.

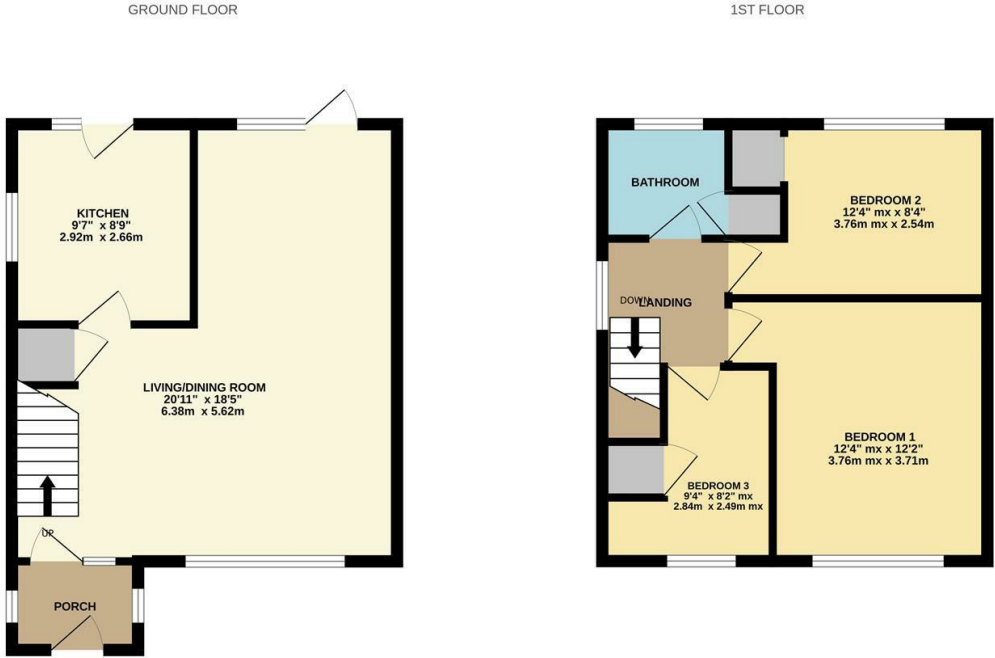

Upstairs, the first floor accommodation comprises three generously sized bedrooms that offer flexible living arrangements for families, along with a family bathroom.

The property is complemented by both front and rear gardens, providing outdoor space and kerb appeal. Given the excellent location, practical features, and well-proportioned accommodation on offer, an internal viewing comes highly recommended to fully appreciate what this home has to offer.
