An impressive characterful family home which has undergone a complete refurbishment located in a convenient position within Rugeley Town Centre.

John German are delighted to offer to the market this impressive three bedroom family home located in the historic town of Rugeley. Built in 1850 as a Doctors surgery by the adjacent Catholic Church this property is steeped in the local area's history.

Rugeley town along with the nearby cathedral city of Lichfield enjoys a range of boutique shops, cosy cafés, markets, pubs and a vast array of restaurants.

Just a two minute walk from the Rugeley heritage trail that connects directly to Cannock Chase Forest, an area of outstanding natural beauty praised nationally for its miles of mountain bike and hiking trails. The property also benefits from being a 'stone's throw' from Rugeley's two railway stations providing direct access to Lichfield, Birmingham, London and many more.

In brief the property comprises of two front reception rooms, Rhodesian teak hardwood floors and both having feature fireplaces, A beautifully presented breakfast kitchen with a professional range cooker, matching wall and base units, Calacatta Gold quartz worktops and upstands and a stunning quarry tiled floor. An exposed brick staircase leads to the cellar which could be used as an additional sitting room or home office.

The first floor has two generous sized bedrooms and a stunning spacious family bathroom with a freestanding copper bath, separate walk-in double shower, and sauna.

From the landing leads stairs to the imposing second floor master bedroom.

Externally, a private south/west facing fully enclosed walled garden. A low maintenance and a sun lover's dream. In addition there is an external storage room attached to the rear of the property and a large garden shed. A secure gate leads to the parking space for the property.
