Making home moves happen

An interesting investment opportunity to acquire a large central property which is currently divided into two separate dwellings. On the upper level is a spacious three bedroom home and on the ground floor is a further one bedroom property with its own independent access. Externally the property has gardens to front with an access path and courtyard to the rear and side. There is also a timber garage and off road parking. The property is accessed from a shared private road directly off North Street and the property is located within easy access to all local amenities.

Tenure: Freehold / Energy Rating: E & F / Council Tax Band: B

The town of North Petherton lies between Taunton and Bridgwater and offers an excellent range of facilities as well as easy access to the M5 motorway at Junction 24. Both nearby towns of Taunton and Bridgwater have a mainline intercity railway station.
