what the owners will miss

The locality has been perfect as our family were growing up, closeness of the park, the views from the back bedroom window - especially the Balloon Fiesta as you can see the balloons and night glow and just generally the quiet area. We will miss this house as it has been our home for over 30 years and have seen our boys grow from babies to men.

just a thought...

If you hadn't considered this style of home before, this could be the one! Deceptively well proportioned, with off street parking, garage and garden and all priced at an extremely competitive price point. Viewing recommended.
