what the owners will miss

"I have lived at Lyndhurst Cottage since 2012, and I have loved every minute. The location is brilliant, and the house and grounds are perfect, I couldn't have wished for much more. The house is great for entertaining due to the upside down layout. There are two nice pubs in the road if you choose to go to them and you will know everyone in the seven houses in the road within a very short time as they are all very friendly. If you have a dog or just like walking, there are amazing walks right outside the door. Due to circumstance changes I am moving on but believe me and ask anyone who knows me, I would really love to stay here forever."

just a thought...

You may never have heard of Ferry Steps or Hanham Mills, but this hidden locality is a delight for many, yet to be discovered. So close to the city, yet offering tranquility and space with green wooded and river walks and two fantastic local pubs on the doorstep. This is a genuine rare opportunity to acquire a landmark house, in a stunning location!
