Inside, a glazed entrance porch leads into a spacious hallway with classic timber doors, dado rails, and useful understairs storage. The ground floor is designed to flow naturally between reception spaces. To the front, a generous lounge features a wide picture window and sliding patio doors, allowing light to pour in from two sides. A gas fireplace with marble hearth and timber surround adds a traditional focal point.

To the rear, the kitchen diner is beautifully appointed with granite worktops, Belfast sink, integrated appliances and oak cabinetry. The space opens into a dining or sitting area with bi-fold doors onto the patio, creating an ideal indoor-outdoor flow. A separate utility room houses laundry appliances, boiler and a rear door to the garden, while a dedicated dining room (or ground floor fifth bedroom) offers further flexibility.

Upstairs, the landing connects to four large double bedrooms, including a principal suite with views over the garden and a tiled en suite shower room. The family bathroom features a four-piece suite with both bath and walk-in shower, fully tiled walls and floor and a heated towel rail.

The home benefits from uPVC double glazing, a regularly serviced Vaillant gas boiler and a secondary hot water cylinder on the first floor.

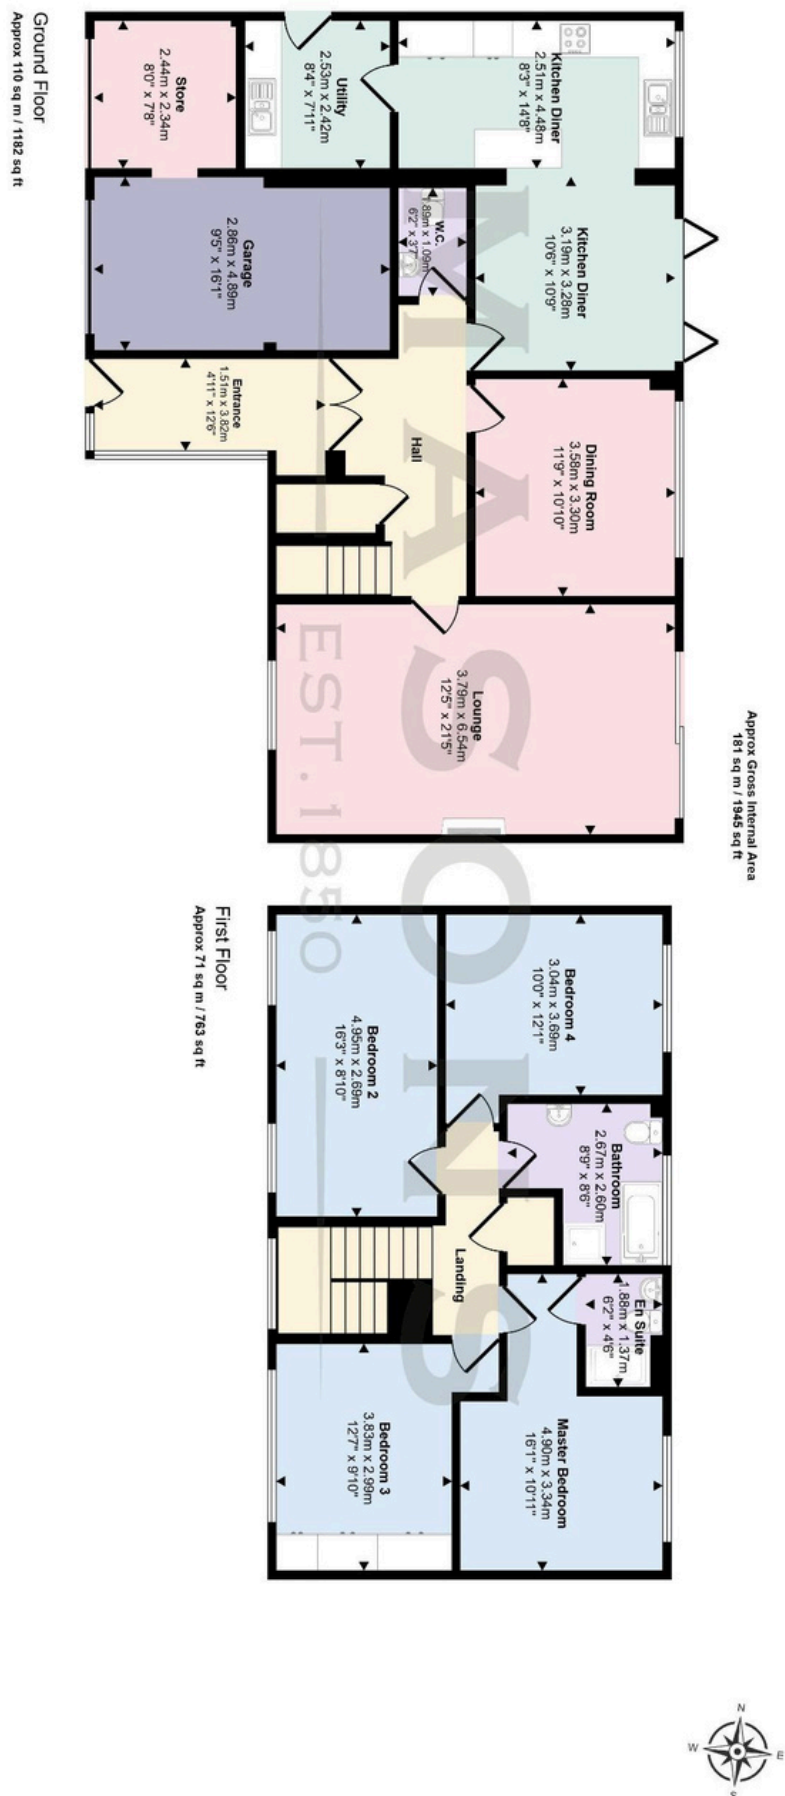

Outside, the rear garden is a standout feature: wide, private and gently sloping, it is mainly laid to lawn with mature planting, ornamental hedging and a large paved patio ideal for entertaining. A raised vegetable plot, greenhouse and fruit trees offer space for growing, while further patio areas to the side provide multiple sunny spots throughout the day. A side gate connects to the wide tarmac driveway and front garden, which is also beautifully planted and well-screened.

The attached garage includes power and lighting and is partially divided with a secondary store room, providing scope for conversion or additional workshop space if desired.
