Believed to date back to the 1980s and constructed to a traditional design with front gable and two-storey front bay windows, this detached family house stands extremely well, positioned away from the road behind a long driveway with an impressive walled and gated entrance. The drive continues through inner gates to the far end of the extensive grounds where a spacious detached bungalow annexe with holiday let potential or home business use (STP) backs onto open fields. There are large parking and turning areas together with a detached double garage beyond the main garden.

Located on the semi-rural outskirts of the village, the attractive setting and individual properties in this area afford some lovely mature views. The plot has an area of around half and acre in total (STS), with mature, well-stocked gardens, to the front and rear of the main house.

At the front of the house there is a wide Rosemary-style tiled veranda-porch on shaped brackets with uPVC panelled front door and double-glazed side panels. The spacious entrance hall has a staircase with spindle balustrade to the first floor. To the rear is a digital central heating programmer.

The lounge is a spacious and well-proportioned reception room with a wide walk-in bay window on the front elevation presenting a lovely view towards Tetney Lane. On the rear elevation, there are double-glazed French doors with side windows overlooking the patio and garden.

This room has moulded coving and a dado rail, together with a feature tall Art Nouveau style fireplace with bevelled mirror and an inset gas fire on ceramic tiled hearth. There are four wall light points and a ceiling light point on dimmer switches.

The dining room is positioned at the front of the house and has an oak-effect luxury vinyl tiled floor, serving hatch from the kitchen at the rear and a wide window overlooking the approach to the house. At the rear of the hall there is a good-size study with a large window on the side elevation facing the rear patio.

The breakfast kitchen is fitted with an extensive range of units in birch style, comprising base cupboards and drawers, wall cupboards including glazed display cabinets and a tall larder cupboard. Textured granite-effect work surfaces with tiled splashbacks and an acrylic one and a half bowl sink unit with ornamental mixer tap. There is a Leisure Rangemaster 110 electric range cooker with two large ovens, grill and warming drawer, four plates, warming plate and griddle with a complementary wide cooker hood with downlighters over. Feature brick wall.

Breakfast bar and recess for under-counter refrigerator. There is an integrated freezer and wide window with tiled sill on the side elevation. Ceramic-tiled floor extending into a rear entrance lobby with double-glazed, part-glazed door from the driveway and further white six-panel doors leading off to the utility room and the garden room.

The garden room is a spacious and bright further reception room which is bright and airy, enjoying views through a rear window across the garden to the rear and with double-glazed French doors on the side elevation, together with two large windows facing the patio. This room has a ceramic-tiled floor and two ceiling light points.

The utility room is particularly spacious and fitted with an extensive range of units in white, comprising base and wall cupboards, roll-edge work surfaces and a double-bowl, stainless steel sink unit. To one side is the Worcester gas-fired central heating boiler and a door opens to a ground floor cloakroom with a coloured low-level WC.

The staircase opens onto a spacious gallery landing with balustrade extending along the stairwell and a moulded dado rail. A wide window on the front elevation presents some lovely views across the main approach to the house and the attractive wooded village surroundings.

The master bedroom is a spacious double room with a wide, walk-in bay window on the front elevation enjoying views as from the landing, with white six-panel doors off to a dressing room fitted with clothes rails and shelf compartments and an ensuite shower room.

The modern shower room has a larger-than-average ceramic-tiled shower cubicle with glazed screens and sliding glazed door, together with a wall-mounted thermostatic shower unit with drench head and handset. Ceramic-tiled walls and chrome ladder-style radiator/towel rail.

A smaller double second bedroom is positioned at the front of the house with a full-length range of wardrobes and store cupboards having louvred doors and a window on the front elevation.

Bedrooms 3 and 4 are single bedrooms positioned at the side and rear, each having a side window and bedroom 3 has a white six-panel door to a linen cupboard with radiator and high-level shelves. This room also has the trap access into the roof void.

The family bathroom is exceptionally spacious and fitted with a light-coloured suite comprising a low-level WC, a large pedestal wash hand basin and a bath set into a raised carpeted and ceramic-tile surround with a deep step up, twin grips and lever taps. There are ceramic-tiled splashbacks extending to full height along the rear wall and continuing to a ceramic-tiled shower cubicle with glazed door and an Aqualisa shower mixer unit with handset. There is a ceiling light point, a wall light point and a rear window set into a tiled reveal.

Annexe Bungalow

The bungalow annexe is located at the rear of the plot and accessed through a double-glazed front door into a hallway with oak-effect floor covering, two mat wells and a rear double-glazed door out onto the garden. White six-panel doors open into an inner hallway which leads to the bedrooms and bathroom and also to the kitchen.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of modern units in white with metal handles comprising base cupboards and drawers with deep pan drawers, work surfaces with a stainless steel, single drainer sink unit and an Indesit plumbed in washing matching. There is a Candy electric oven set into a tall unit and a separate gas Candy four-ring hob with a stainless steel cooker hood over. A white six-panel door leads from the kitchen into the L-shaped dining lounge – an extremely spacious reception room with window to both front and rear elevations, multiple lights to the ceiling and trap access to the roof void.

The inner hallway has white six-panel doors leading to the two bedrooms and the bathroom which is fitted with a white suite comprising panelled bath with shower fittings to a modern lever mixer tap and ceramic-tiled surround, a pedestal wash hand basin with lever tap and tiled splashback and a low-level, dual-flush WC. The electricity consumer unit is located here and there are two windows to the front elevation and two ceiling lights.

The main bedroom is a superb size and has window to front, side and rear elevations, making this a bright and airy room. In the corner is the Alpha Intec 25XE gas-fired combination boiler which operates with a remote programmer. There are two ceiling light points and the front window presents a view down the driveway at the side of the house, while the rear window presents lovely winter views through a hedge across open fields beyond. The second bedroom is a smaller bedroom at the rear with winter views over fields at the rear.

Facing the road are tall, wrought-iron double gates set back in an entrance bay with tile-capped walls and pillars. These open onto a long, block-paved winding driveway which widens before the house to form a parking and turning area. To each side of the drive there are lawned gardens with mature trees, shrubs, bushes and a border with a brick retaining wall. A pathway leads around the right side of the house while to the left, further wrought-iron tall gates open and the driveway continues to the far end of the plot with a screen fence and door to the large rear garden. The long driveway leads to a detached double garage of rendered block construction with piers internally and a pitched and hipped concrete-tiled roof. Access is via a remote controlled, motorized double door together with a pedestrian door and the garage has a strip light, power points, wall shelving and a separate consumer unit with fuses. There is a double-glazed window facing the bungalow annexe.

Immediately to the rear of the house there is a crazy-paved, sheltered patio with raised shrubberies and a pond, beyond which a large lawn stretches away with hedge to the side, patio seating and dining area and a pathway leading through the lawn and then passing a screen shrubbery to the detached double garage.

There is a spacious parking forecourt around the garage and in front of the bungalow annexe with pathways on each side to a lawned annexe garden with hedges behind the bungalow and backing onto open fields.

There are numerous outside lights and an outside water tap by the rear patio.
