

Croydon Road, Penge

Asking Price £415,000

Property Summary

Propertyworld are proudly presents what we think is a 'super funky' - 'ultra cool' apartment, boasting its very own PRIVATE ROOF TERRACE!

Forming part of a beautiful, double fronted, Victorian house, literally on the cusp high Street Penge, this allows minutes walk for all local amenities, transport links, cafes and shops. And for those looking for a real rare find, including a bit out outdoor space - then look no further!

To generalise, the details are as follows:

Steps up to a communal door, taking up to the first floor. Once inside, a hallway takes you the second bedroom on the left of the hall, as well as access into the three piece bathroom suite. a further few steps across the hall leads you into an eye-catching open plan lounge to kitchen fitted wood floors, an almost floor-to-ceiling, feature stained glass window to side, with a range of fitted kitchen cabinet in the kitchen area in front of the windows with panoramic views. The Master bedroom measures in excess of 17ft and also come with fitted storage. However what sets this property apart from any others is the ROOF TERRACE, looking out with panoramic views over Penge - with direct access from the lounge.

Boasting a shared freehold, and ready for immediate residence, this is a home, definitely not be missed!

Our Vendor Loves...

We love the flats bold character with its spacious split level layout. The flat is Light and bright and really comes into its own in summer. The terrace is something special, early morning coffees, sunbathing all day or sunset glasses of wine in the summer make you feel like you are on a permanent holiday, likewise the far reaching unbroken view of London gives a spectacular view of New Year's Eve fireworks.
