

Royston Road, Penge

Price Guide £225,000

Property Summary

Price Guide £225,000 -£250,000

Propertyworld proudly presents this one bedroom purpose built flat to the Sales market. In need of complete modernisation which has been reflected in the asking price, this apartment still has a lot to offer!

Siting literally across the road from Kent House Rail station for a quick commute into London, not forgetting an Express Grocery store further along, makes this an ideal buy as a rental investment, as well as for any first time buyers who are prepared to have a project.

Boasting a Shared freehold and a garage en-bloc to the rear, this apartment is definitely one not to be missed. The accommodation provides a a spacious kitchen/diner to front and you can really tailor this to your personal specification - simply because of all the room you have. Across the hall is a large bathroom, housing a three piece suite and window for plenty of natural light and ventilation.

The lounge is a great size, with ample spaces for table, chairs and a sofa, whilst the bedroom sits beside the lounge - generously sized and shares the quiet views over the rear.

Outside to the rear there is a garage en-bloc, set in well maintained grounds

There an abundance of storage in this property and plenty of natural light and with no onward chain this is a winner for the serious buyers out there.
