LOCATION

Tisbury, is the largest village in Wiltshire's Nadder Valley and is located to the west of the Cathedral City of Salisbury. The village benefits from a railway station which is on the main line between Exeter and London Waterloo. Tisbury has an excellent range of amenities, including a butcher, a coffee shop, a delicatessen and a florist. There is also a post office, a gallery and art centre, a doctors' surgery, a dentist, a leisure centre and a recreation ground. There are several local community groups.

In addition, the village has an excellent school in St John's Primary and many very well thought of independent and grammar schools within the local area. Since 2014 Tisbury has been voted within the Top 5 villages outside London according to the Sunday Times. A303 (London/Exeter) 6m, Shaftesbury 10m, Salisbury 14m. Trains: Tisbury (London Waterloo 110m), Salisbury (London Waterloo 85 mins).
