Immaculate is truly the right word to best describe this superb four bedroom semi-detached abode! From the moment you cross over the threshold you get a real welcoming feel which continues throughout; it really is a great family home to create many happy memories in for years to come! Not far from the local services and amenities in New Brighton and Liscard, meaning it is well placed for frequent public transport links, popular local schooling and the promenade. Also great for commuters as not far from the Liverpool Tunnel and M53 motorway. Interior: inviting reception hallway, living room, sitting/dining room and a well-planned breakfast kitchen on the ground floor. Off the first floor landing there are four bedrooms and a refitted bathroom. Complete with uPVC double glazing and gas central heating. Be quick!
