Wow! A commanding, detached residence set upon a large plot with beautifully kept gardens and swooping long driveway. Immaculately kept and much improved throughout, this five bedroom home with extensive three room loft space, is set across three floors with three bathrooms and five reception rooms and really does offer everything a family needs. Situated just a stone's throw to New Brighton front, perfect for walks along the promenade, and only a stroll to the Marine Point development. Interior: hallway, five reception rooms, breakfast kitchen and utility plus bathroom. Off the first floor landing there are the five bedrooms and office. With three further rooms on the second floor. Complete with uPVC double glazing, gas central heating and beautiful gardens and driveway. An absolute must see!
