£595 pcm

This fantastic three bedroom terraced home is perfect for someone looking to just drop in their furniture and start to enjoy right away. The property is very well presented and much improved throughout. Nestled in a cul-de-sac in the centre of Liscard, being only a short walk to local shops and amenities including frequent public bus services, a post office and Tesco Express. It is a great base for local Primary and Secondary schooling, as well as commuting being just a short drive to the Liverpool tunnel and M53 motorway. A must see!
