Renovated throughout to a high specification is this sizeable, semi-detached family home situated on a quiet cul-de-sac.

Having undergone a complete renovation throughout, this well presented four bedroom home offers space for the whole family. The kitchen/diner boasts a bespoke kitchen which benefits from integrated appliances, ample worktop space & bar seating, with extra space for a formal dining table. The living room is of a generous size with a tastefully reclaimed fireplace & built in alcove storage cupboards & shelves. The conservatory overlooks the rear garden & has new double glazed windows and door and a contemporary electric radiator.

To the first floor the spacious landing offers access to the four double bedrooms. Each bedroom has been tastefully redecorated and are the perfect size for a growing family. The main bedroom over looks the rear garden and benefits from decorative panelling and built in wardrobes with sliding mirror doors. The main bathroom is a sanctuary perfect for unwinding after a busy day with its impressive free standing bath. The bathroom also offers a separate shower for everyday convenience.

The vendors have converted the garage & installed double glazed sliding doors, new insulation & electrics. The space is currently being used as a home gym, however with the recent upgrades it could also be used as a home office, games room or garden bar to name a few. The rear garden is fully enclosed with wooden fencing & has been landscaped with a decked area to the side providing a private space for relaxing & enjoying alfresco dining. It has also been partly laid to lawn with a mature border containing an array of plants & trees.

The property is conveniently located within walking distance of the popular Brunswick Park, amenities & local primary and high schools and transport links via road, bus or train. Ipswich town centre and the popular Waterfront area are also easily reached, offering a wide selection of bars & restaurants.
