This impressive double-fronted detached home is set on a generous 3/4-acre plot in the picturesque village of St. Osyth. With five well-proportioned bedrooms, this property offers versatile living for families or those seeking ample space for work and leisure.

The heart of the home is the kitchen/diner, complete with a separate utility room, offering a practical and stylish space for cooking and entertaining. A spacious lounge with a feature fireplace, perfect for cosy evenings, while the second reception room provides flexibility as a dining room or an additional living area. A dedicated home office ensures working from home is both comfortable and efficient.

The large master bedroom benefits from an ensuite bathroom, offering a private retreat, while the other bedrooms provide plenty of options for family, guests, or hobbies. Outside, a substantial driveway accommodates multiple vehicles, including cars, boats, or motorhomes, and leads to a double
