Description

Marshall House is a landmark office block in the heart of Preston city centre. The nine-storey Marshall House on The Ringway occupies a prime central location and features over 26,000 sq ft of high quality office accommodation. Adjoining the building are the Magistrates Courts and Law Courts with the bus station within a short walk. All Preston's city centre amenities are close by including retail, banking, leisure together with the West Coast Mainline railway Station. In recent years the building was uplifted with full external cladding and replacement of all windows with powder coated double glazed units.

The building offers the following key features:

- High speed internet connections
- Double height entrance reception
- Secure on site parking
- Open plan floor plates
- Excellent public transport links

Location

Preston was awarded City status in 2002 by the Queen and is now the commercial and administrative centre of Lancashire and the seat of Lancashire County Council. The city has a population of approximately 130,000. Preston is a major centre for learning and the home to the University of Central Lancashire which has a student population of more than 32,000.

Marshall House is prominently situated fronting Ringway (A6), Preston's inner ring road, on the edge of the city centre. Adjoining Marshall House are the Magistrates Courts and Law Courts with the bus station within a short walk. All Preston's city centre amenities are close by including retail, banking, leisure and parking together with the West Coast Mainline railway station. Located at the centre of Lancashire's business and transport network Preston is within easy access of the M6 (2.7 miles), M61 (4 miles), M55 (3.5 miles) and M65 (3.4 miles).
