THE DWELLING

Buckshaw Gate is an excellent example of a former lodge, believed to date back to the late 19th century with cut stone elevations and hamstone accents beneath a tiled roof. Many of the original features have been carefully preserved, enhancing the home's historic appeal.

ACCOMMODATION

At the heart of this home is a hallway provides access to all main reception rooms. The well-appointed kitchen features generous cabinetry, a breakfast bar and leads to the rear hallway. From the rear hallway, you can access shower room and the charming gardens. The dining room, accessible from the kitchen, offers a large window overlooking the rear aspect and a feature fireplace. The living room complements this charm with a delightful bay window and its own feature fireplace.

The first floor comprises three bedrooms and a family bathroom. Bedrooms one and two showcase charming feature fireplaces, while the master bedroom also offers the added convenience of built-in wardrobes. The family bathroom is also located on this floor.

GARDEN

Enclosed by railings a gravelled area offers ample off road parking. Lying adjacent is a large area laid to lawn enclosed by fencing with mature trees lying to the boarder and neighbouring fields surrounding.

SITUATION

The property is located on a quiet road, with the nearby village of Kings Stag offering a pub, coffee shop, and garage for essential amenities. Just 6 miles south of Sherborne, there's easy access to a variety of shops, businesses, and a Waitrose supermarket. Other nearby towns include Yeovil (11 miles) and Dorchester (14 miles).

Sherborne offers excellent schooling options, including primary and secondary schools, as well as private schools like Sherborne, Leweston, and Bruton. The town provides a regular train service to London Waterloo (approx. 2.5 hours), while Castle Cary station (18 miles) offers a faster route to Paddington (about 90 minutes). Bournemouth, Bristol, and Exeter Airports are also within reach.
