Bear Estate Agents are proud to present this two bedroom detached bungalow that comes to market with no onward chain. The property is ideally located just minutes from Prince Avenue Primary School, along with ideal amenities and bus links. London Southend Airport offers flights to desired destinations, as well as a sought after retail park and a train station for easy access to London. The A127 can be easily reached, making the location ideal for commuters.

The property is in good condition throughout and benefits from having off-street parking for one vehicle to the front. Inside, you will find a large open plan lounge/diner that has a feature fireplace, French doors leading to the rear and opens into a generous kitchen. To the front, there are two well-proportioned bedrooms, whilst the rear offers a three piece shower room. The secluded garden is well-maintained and South facing, presenting a patio seating area.
