Price Guide

St. Marys Road

The accommodation is well-maintained throughout, featuring a charming bay-fronted lounge/diner that offers a bright and spacious living area. The kitchen/breakfast room is modern and functional, complemented by a separate utility room for added convenience. A ground-floor WC adds practicality for family living or entertaining. Upstairs, there are three good-sized bedrooms, all tastefully decorated, and a luxurious four-piece family bathroom that includes both a bathtub and a separate shower. Additionally, a versatile loft room provides extra space, ideal for use as a home office, playroom, or storage. Externally, the property boasts a generously sized rear garden, perfect for outdoor entertaining or family activities. Off-street parking to the front ensures easy accessibility.

St Marys Road is situated in the city centre within easy reach of favoured amenities, excellent schools including grammar schools, popular local parks including Priory park and transport connections including the A127 and Prittlewell Train Station. All in all, the location is ideal for commuters and families alike.
