Price Guide

Station Avenue

The home is well-presented throughout and offers more space than meets the eye. The ground floor features a charming bay-fronted lounge (currently being used as the master bedroom), a spacious kitchen and a large family/dining room perfect for entertaining or relaxing. Upstairs, you'll find two generously sized double bedrooms and a well-appointed three-piece bathroom with storage and a heated towel rail. Outside, the low-maintenance rear garden is ideal for summer gatherings and includes a sunroom, a workshop and a handy outdoor WC, all with power and lighting.

Ideally situated in Southend-on-Sea, this home enjoys excellent transport connections with Prittlewell Train Station and the A127 just moments away, making it a prime choice for commuters. The area is well-served by local amenities, including shops, schools and bus links, while Priory Park, Roots Hall Stadium and London Southend Airport are all within easy reach. Southend High Street offers a vibrant mix of shops, cafes and restaurants, along with access to the seafront for leisurely weekend outings.
