Internally, the flat offers an open plan kitchen/living room that flows directly onto a private patio, creating an excellent space for relaxing or entertaining. The property also benefits from a spacious double bedroom with plenty of room for storage, which provides access to both a sleek three piece bathroom and a private balcony. Further highlights include a handy storage cupboard, high performance glazing and gas central heating. Externally, there is the convenience of one allocated off-street parking space.

The property is located in Prospects Place on Fairfax Drive, ideally positioned for access to Southend Hospital, the A127 and local bus links. Prittlewell Train Station is close by for direct connections into London, while Priory Park, Southend City Centre and a wealth of amenities are also within easy reach.
