

Milton Road, Wallington SM6 9RP

Found on a prime road in the very heart of Wallington, this superb three bedroom period family home with large garden and driveway fit for two cars. The existing vendors have sympathetically finished the property to combine some lovely period features with contemporary fittings. Ornate cornicing, fireplaces and high ceilings are all prevalent, making for bright, generous and characterful entertaining spaces downstairs. The kitchen is beautifully finished with ample cabinetry, some integrated appliances, landscaped tiles and unit lighting. On from the kitchen you will find the lean to/conservatory which is a peaceful place to relax and unwind overlooking what is a mature and spacious rear garden, perfect for a family to enjoy. Upstairs now and the bright and airy theme continues; there are three sizeable bedrooms and family bathroom which centres on the roll-top bathtub. The house presents further scope to extend into the loft and rear (like many have on the road) subject to the required planning consents. The house itself benefits from an attractive external profile, boasts a large drive and is conveniently situated within easy reach of the areas fantastic selection of schools, transport links and amenities. We are taking open day bookings now for 11th May, so call now to reserve your viewing slot!
