OT T

A spacious three DOUBLE bedroom semi-detached family home offered to the market with POTENTIAL TO EXTEND (STPP). The property is located in a quiet tucked away cul-de-sac (backing onto a park and green space) in the highly sought after village of Coleshill.

The accommodation comprises: entrance hall, guest cloakroom, spacious living room, large kitchen/dining room, workshop, three good size double bedrooms and family bathroom. The property further benefits: driveway parking, large garage (22'10" x 11'3") offering potential to convert into further living space, good size plot, gas central heating, solar panels and UPVC double glazing.

Coleshill is a picturesque village perched atop the Chiltern Hills, offering stunning views and a tranquil rural atmosphere. Located between Amersham and Beaconsfield, it boasts a rich history, with notable landmarks such as the 19th-century All Saints Church and traditional pubs like The Red Lion. The village is surrounded by scenic countryside, making it ideal for outdoor enthusiasts. Transport Links to London: Coleshill is well-connected to London via nearby railway stations. Amersham Station, approximately 2 miles away, provides services on the Metropolitan Line and Chiltern Railways, offering direct routes to London Marylebone. Beaconsfield Station, about 3 miles from the village, also offers Chiltern Railways services to London.

Additionally, the proximity to the M40 motorway facilitates convenient road travel to the capital.
