Jigsaw Move are pleased to welcome to the market this three bedroom Grade II Listed Victorian detached property oozing charm and character and maintaining many original features. The property is situated on Howden Station on the outskirts of the popular market town of Howden, and is offered for sale with no onward chain.

The property briefly comprises of; Entrance Hallway, Lounge with working log burner, Kitchen, Multiple Reception Rooms, Shower Room, Stairs & Landing, Three Large Double Bedrooms and Family Bathroom with Stand Alone Bath.

The property also benefits from; oil central heating, sash windows, canopies and off road parking. The land belonging to the property is the 1 metre perimeter of the property but there is also opportunity to rent the land to the side of the house from Network Rail for approx. £300PA for extra parking.

Station House was built by the Hull and Selby Railway company in 1838 as an operational station building and station masters house, in 1877 the North Eastern Railway extended the building by putting a single storey extension on the west end of the building. The building was sold by British Rail in 1979 to become a private dwelling.

This property is situated on the outskirts the popular small market town location of Howden. Howden hosts a range of local amenities including; good local schools, shops, café's, bars restaurants, takeaways, Howden park and transport amenities including train station which is ideal when commuting to Leeds, York, Hull and London as it is close to all major networks. Nearby access to the M62 (Hull to Manchester) and the A64 to York, Selby and Hull.

This property is also offered with no onward chain and would make an ideal first home or family home and we highly recommend an early internal inspection to appreciate what the property accommodation and location has to offer.

There is potential for the property to be used as business premises subject to planning permission.
