SUMMARY

We are delighted to offer for Let this light and spacious two double bedroom detached coach house situated within the modern and popular residential area of Cranbrook.

Cranbrook is located approximately 7 miles East of Exeter and offers convenient access to transport links into the city as well as the surrounding major road network. Within Cranbrook itself are a range of amenities which include well regarded primary and secondary schools, a Public House and a parade of shops.

The extremely well presented accommodation comprises; entrance hall with stairs up to the first floor with open plan living/dining room with modern fitted kitchen, two double bedrooms and bathroom.

The property has double glazing and Eon district heating.

There is a single garage with up and over door and power, light and water to the garage.

As the property does not offer any outside space we are unable to consider pets or children. Would suit a professional person or couple.

Available with immediate effect subject to satisfactory referencing.
