Located in an exclusive lane with no passing traffic is Highcliffe, a superior stone built property which is the epitome of contemporary open plan living at its best which is flooded with natural light, steam room in master ensuite and commands attractive far reaching views and is also within walking distance of high end bars, boutiques and bistros in the sought after village of Greetland.

Our floor plan and photos best articulate what the property has to offer but some of the highlights include; the main open plan kitchen living and dining area is an exceptional social arena which has two sets of aluminium tri folding doors opening up nearly all of the rear elevation bringing the outdoors inside which includes a sunny delight of a low maintenance private rear garden with alfresco dining terrace dressed by a quant dry stone wall. The kitchen has been fitted with a new freestanding feature stove and boasts many a high end integrated appliance, including twin Neff Slide & Hide Double Ovens, Bosch tall fridge and separate oversize freezer, Franke sink, Miele dishwasher in addition to a Neff induction hob with state of the art hidden extractor. The master bedroom offers great opulence with a dressing room, Juliet balcony and a stylish ensuite which features a Harvia steam room in the shower with seating for comfort. The sanitary ware equally of high quality with Grohe showers and taps and also has Hive remote control central heating system.

The garage has been recently converted into a gymnasium, it is the perfect family home. There is also a car charging point at the side of the property for electric cars.
