

00 Essex Road, London, E10 6BT Offers in excess of £655,000

A traditional home with plenty of space which is situated within commuting district to the City of London and is within reach of many shops and leisure facilities as well as an area with rail links.

Enter the property into the porch and then into the hallway. A spacious lounge with bow fronted window leads to the dining room and into the kitchen. A downstairs shower and utility complete the ground floor living. Stairs then lead to the first floor landing with four bedrooms and the house bathroom which leads from bedroom 5. Stairs to the loft space with additional space and shower room.

The garden to the rear requires landscaping but has great scope for those with green fingers.
