Hunters welcome to the market this spacious mid-link house on Rectory Green in the sought-after village of West Boldon.

As you step inside the porch you are greeted by a lovely open hallway, with access to the kitchen which has an integral garage door, two spacious reception rooms offering versatility for entertaining or relaxing, and a ground floor WC adds a touch of convenience to everyday living.

Venture upstairs to find three generously sized double bedrooms and well appointed family bathroom.

Outside, a secluded rear walled garden provides a tranquil escape with paved areas perfect for enjoying the outdoors. The front of the property boasts a block paved driveway and lawned gardens.

Located in a quiet cul-de-sac, this property not only offers a perfect setting but also provides easy access to the regional road network, making commuting a breeze. With local pubs, restaurants, and schools nearby, the location is ideal for families and professionals alike.

In summary, this lovely home is a rare find in a highly regarded location.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to make this exquisite house your new home.
