Nestled on Ripon Street in Roker, Sunderland, this delightful mid-terraced dormer cottage is a superb example of modern living infused with character and warmth. This immaculate property offers a spacious yet cosy atmosphere, making it a truly loved home.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a welcoming lobby that leads into a hallway. The ground floor features two separate reception rooms both with feature fireplaces; one serves as a comfortable living room, while the other is currently utilised as a study, perfect for those who work from home. The ground floor also boasts a generous double bedroom, alongside an impressive open-plan living and dining area, complete with a stunning brick fireplace and a cast enamel gas stove, ideal for those chilly evenings.

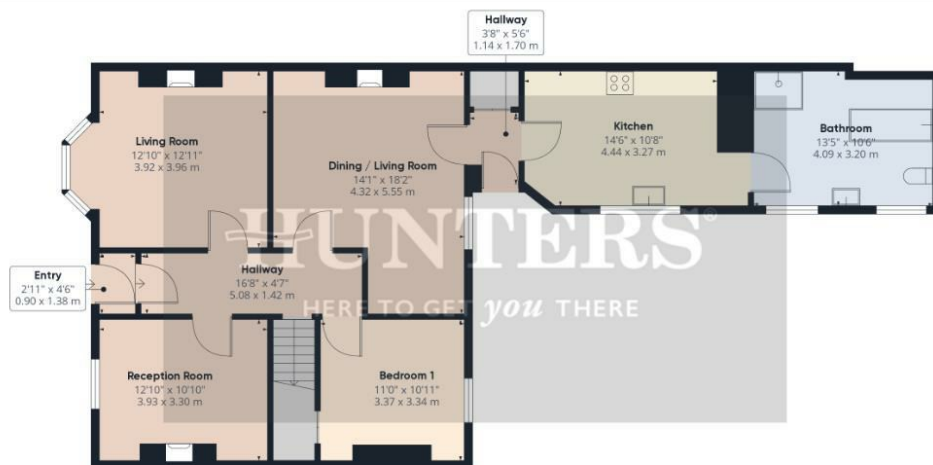

The fitted kitchen flows seamlessly into a grand bathroom, which is a true highlight of the home. It features a walk-in shower, a free-standing bath, a sink, and a toilet, providing both style and functionality. Ascending to the first floor, you will find a light and spacious landing that leads to a large double bedroom and a smaller double, ensuring ample space for family or guests.

This property is ideally located within walking distance to Roker Park, the beautiful coastline, and the marina, making it perfect for those who enjoy outdoor activities. The area is highly sought after, offering an appealing lifestyle with a variety of popular bars, cafes, and restaurants nearby. Excellent transport links further enhance the convenience of this location.

Externally, the cottage boasts a larger-than-average courtyard garden area, complete with a roller shutter for off-street parking, adding to the practicality of this charming home. This property is a must-see for anyone seeking a blend of character, comfort, and modern living in a vibrant community.
