“...breath-taking drama resulting in a home like no other.”

This breathtaking barn conversion has managed to balance the sheer volume of space with a homely and welcoming approach. Tucked within a generous plot with far-reaching countryside views, this extraordinary barn showcases quintessential flint elevations, concealing breathtaking drama resulting in a home like no other.

Entering the home, the butterfly staircase greets you; standing at the top, you can look down and appreciate the well-balanced accommodation of the ground floor. The kitchen, to the right, is ideally located and has solid oak worktops, leading through to the private dining room while remaining open plan to a wonderful, vaulted seating area.

Bedrooms are in abundance and bring excellent versatility to the home. The ground floor features a wing of four large double bedrooms; two with en-suites and the other two sharing the well-equipped family bathroom.

Ascending to the first floor, you will find arguably the most striking reception; beaming with character and charm, exposed oak beams can be seen. In the centre of the sitting room, a brick-built fireplace with an electric stove and ample space for all your heart's desires. The principal bedroom boasts elegance with vaulted ceilings, a dressing room, and an en-suite bathroom.
