Inglenooks is a stunning Grade II listed home that exudes character and history, located within the charming market town of Wymondham.

The interior is a perfect blend of warmth and charm, with a reception dining hall that sets the tone with its cosy atmosphere, highlighted by the impressive inglenook fireplaces and wood burning stove. The sitting room offers a serene retreat with its abundance of character and exposed ceiling timbers, while the kitchen breakfast room is not only well-equipped but also boasts ample storage and workspace.

The breakfast room is a bright and inviting space, flooded with natural light and offering access to the terrace, it is perfect for enjoying the outdoor scenery. The garden room provides a picturesque view of the garden, and the ground floor also features a utility room, cellar, vaulted study, and a convenient shower room.

The first floor features two delightful bedrooms both of generous sizes as well as a family bathroom, while the second floor offers additional storage on the landing, and two further bedrooms, which boast stunning sunset views.

The well-landscaped garden is a lovely space to entertain, Complete with a raised terrace that basks in sunlight, a traditional outbuilding, well-maintained lawn, kitchen garden, and a greenhouse, this garden offers the ideal setting for home growing and has provided the current owners with a private and quiet world in the midst of a town setting. The property also offers convenient access to the parking area and a garage through a gate from the garden.

A truly wonderful house... there is always a nook to enjoy.
