Nestled discreetly in a mature plot of around 1 acre (STMS), this handsome Old Rectory has long served as a much loved family home and now comes to the market with superb potential for further renovation alongside a wealth of original features. Almost 4,500 sq.ft. of feature packed accommodation showcases every bit of character one could hope for, alongside the versatility and personality that makes a home truly conducive to a fulfilling family life.

Approached via a sweeping driveway, the front door reveals a welcoming reception hall and grand central staircase, around which the ground floor accommodation sprawls 2,000 sq.ft. The formal dining room and sitting room are opulent traditional receptions, complete with sash windows and shutters, whilst the sociable kitchen/breakfast room and adjoining utility/laundry room provide the sociability and practicality required for modern day life. Elsewhere, the cinema room, snug, study/ground floor bedroom and shower room bring invaluable versatility in which to make such a historic home perfectly match your lifestyle aspirations.

The first floor is home to five large double bedrooms, each showcasing a character of their own, with high ceilings and excellent views from all elevations. A principal suite enjoys a lavish en-suite and the option of an adjacent dressing room. A further en-suite bedroom is complemented by the three further doubles, served by a central family shower room.

Rising to the second floor, a characterful pair of bedrooms would make an excellent bedroom/reception pairing for teenagers or studies/snugs at the top of the home.

...a home truly conducive to a fulfilling family life.

Outside, the elegant and mature plot extends to approximately 1 acre (STMS) and envelops the entire home in an array of features including extensive box hedging and well defined lawned areas making the very best of the all day's sunshine, whilst a walled courtyard provides a perfect sun trap for family dining and barbecues. Alongside the large driveway, a characterful coach house is ripe for conversion, subject to planning, or simply for valuable storage space.
