The setting is a rare find – you’ll truly appreciate the peace and tranquillity of this special location. The grounds extend to approximately 5 acres (STMS) in total and are accessed via a sweeping driveway, leading to generous parking and the detached cart lodge, which also offers storage and attic space above.

The gardens surrounding the house are well-established and include a wonderful terrace, perfect for entertaining, along with sweeping lawns, native hedging and thoughtfully planted borders. To the side, a track leads to the meadow - previously used as a successful camp-site, with power, water and a shower block. It has also been used in the past for events, weddings and parties. There is huge potential here, whether for paddocks, a smallholding, a leisure space or more - subject to relevant planning. Also on offer is a woodland area, with access to the neighbouring common woodland at the rear, where you can enjoy peaceful walks and an abundance of wildlife.

Honing

A PEACEFUL RETREAT WITH EASY ACCESS TO NATURE

Honing is a tranquil village that offers a strong sense of community and some of the best countryside walks right on your doorstep. Weavers Way, a long-distance footpath stretching 56 miles between Cromer and Great Yarmouth, follows the former Midland and Great Northern Joint Railway. This path is popular with walkers, cyclists, and families looking to enjoy the outdoors together.

Despite its peaceful seclusion, Honing is well-connected to nearby towns and cities. North Walsham is the nearest town, offering a variety of amenities such as supermarkets, leisure facilities, shops, schools, and a cottage hospital. For more extensive services, Norwich is easily accessible by regular bus and train services. The cathedral city of Norwich provides a wider range of amenities, including an international airport and mainline train stations.

Just a short drive from Honing, you'll find several stunning beaches, including Happisburgh, where you can visit the oldest working lighthouse on the Norfolk coast. Norfolk's vast, open skies make its beaches feel incredibly spacious and perfect for relaxing or taking in the scenery.

Norwich itself, named one of the best places to live in 2021, offers a unique blend of history and modernity. With its historic cobbled streets, Tudor architecture, independent shops, and the impressive Norwich Cathedral, the city is a delightful place to explore year-round.
