The environment at The Cloisters allows for total independence, yet retaining the security of each apartment owner (Careline pendant linking through to emergency call out, in case the need arises/in case of emergency, etc. This naturally gives both the property owners and their family peace of mind).

The original development was carried out during 1987 within the former grounds of the Rushden Rectory. One of the main features of The Cloisters is the superbly maintained communal gardens, which can be enjoyed by the residents at The Cloisters. In addition to this, there is the Communal Day Room, hosting coffee mornings and social events throughout the year. In summarising, an immediate viewing of this property comes highly recommended to avoid any form of disappointment.

NB: The former Cloisters Care Home is now a private residence, and has been for many years.

NB: There are no pets allowed at this development.
