

297 Wellingborough Road, Rushden
Northants NN10 6BB
Price £775,000 Freehold

Slade House was constructed during the early 1930's by Messrs Robert Marriott, local builders held in very high regard at that time, to the specific requirements of the family of the late Mr & Mrs George Marriott. Since that time, the property has been altered and further improved to provide what is now one of Rushden's most eye-catching family homes, in a highly desirable location, within walking distance of Rushden Lakes. Situated on the Wellingborough Road, set behind a high boundary wall and electric gates, the property boasts over 3,000sqft of accommodation, large driveway, two main garden areas, outdoor heated swimming pool, covered barbeque area and a log cabin/pool house with shower room. Contact ourselves for further information and to arrange that all important early viewing.
