Council Tax: C

Tenure:

Hunters Stanmore are proud to market a well-presented two bedrooms, a spacious and private garden which is half for ground floor flat. With its own entrance and located on the popular tree lined road Cunningham Park. The property boasts a separate reception room which opens out to a rear private garden. As well as being a short distance to shopping centres, schools, gyms and cinemas, the property also has several nearby transport links to central London. This property has recently been refurbished all around with brand new certified double-glazed external windows and doors, including cosmetic improvement throughout the flat, and with the higher ceiling heights and hard wood floors, this property is surely not to be missed.
