

Haye Lane, Fingringhoe, CO5 7AD

Guide price £600,000

Guide Price £600,000-£650,000. Welcome to Lower Haye. Situated toward the far end of a private lane serving three properties only. Lower Haye is located on the Outskirts of the village of Fingringhoe and set in 0.80 acres of beautifully nurtured grounds and gardens surrounded by woodland. The predominantly lawned gardens adjoin the Roman River making an idyllic setting attracting an abundance of local wildlife, flora and fauna. Within the grounds of Lower Haye there are mature oak, willow and fruit bearing trees including, apple, plum and cherry. Additionally the current owners have constructed a substantial garage and workshop with first floor work or storage space and power and light connected. Within the grounds sits the original 'Reed Cutters Cottage' which, with permissions could potentially provide a wonderful opportunity to re-instate a further dwelling. The weather boarded cottage itself dates back to the mid-victorian era and has been sympathetically modernised offering all of the modern conveniences with period charm. At the rear of the cottage you have uninterrupted farmland views which make this a must see property for the discerning buyer that is looking for peace, tranquility and a space to call their own.
