“This spacious home combines modern conveniences with a warm and inviting atmosphere.”

9 Chiltern Crescent is a delightful mid-terrace home, perfectly positioned within close proximity to both the beach and the bustling high street.

This spacious property boasts three double bedrooms, offering ample room for a growing family or those seeking extra space.

As you step inside, you are greeted by a generous entrance hallway that sets the tone for the rest of the home. The ground floor features a bright and airy knocked-through lounge and diner, creating a light and open living space.

This area is enhanced by a cosy wood burner, perfect for those chilly evenings. Adjacent to this, you will find a modern kitchen.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress with three well-proportioned double bedrooms, each offering plenty of space and comfort. The family bathroom completes the upstairs accommodation.

The exterior of the property is equally appealing. To the front, a gravel drive provides ample parking for several vehicles.

The rear garden is a true highlight, featuring a split-level design with a large patio area, ideal for entertaining or enjoying a morning coffee. Beyond the patio, a grassy area offers additional outdoor space for children to play or for gardening enthusiasts. Additionally, a brick-built outbuilding provides excellent storage. There is also an outside toilet, just outside the kitchen.

With no onward chain this spacious home combines modern conveniences with a warm and inviting atmosphere, all in close proximity to amenities and the gorgeous sunset beach.

ALL THE REASONS

Hunstanton

IS THE PLACE TO CALL HOME

Who wouldn't want a place by the sea? Hunstanton is a traditional, unspoilt coastal town, the perfect spot to enjoy a walk on the beach and a tasty fish and chip supper, but for those lucky enough to call it home, this Victorian gem has so much more to offer.

Established in 1846 by Henry Le Strange as a bathing resort designed in a Victorian Gothic style, the esteemed townsman wisely led the development of a railway from King's Lynn to enable day-trippers to reach the 'new town' – a canny investment as the route was later to become the most profitable in the country.

Holidaymakers still Mecca to Hunstanton, many staying at Searles Leisure Resort which opened as a caravan park in 1936. Wile away an afternoon on the water with a boat trip on its Wash Monster, ride the carousel at the fairground or keep it traditional and feed the penny slots at the arcades. The town's Princess Theatre, renamed in the 80s in honour of Lady Diana Spencer, features a year-round programme of live performances, film screenings plus a seasonal panto. Golfers of all ages can try their hand with a mini golf course and pitch & putt on the cliff-top, plus a renowned Links course in neighbouring Old Hunstanton.

Facing west across The Wash, 'sunny Hunny' as the locals fondly call it, is famous for its incredible sunsets and in the summer months it's customary to head to the green, beach or one of the Victorian squares to watch the daylight slowly fade.

Impressive Victorian and Edwardian properties line the squares and surrounding streets, which have been added to over the years with more contemporary homes, apartments and supported accommodation for later life living. With a primary and secondary school, Smithdon High, which is a Grade II listed building, plus a co-educational prep school, Glebe House School, there is an excellent choice of education within the town. Other amenities include a GP surgery and Post Office, plus a leisure pool and gym at The Oasis, which overlooks the sea – grab an early morning workout and watch the skyline come to life.

Two of the supermarket stalwarts, Tesco and Sainsbury are in town, with a Lidl just five minutes away on the A149 at Heacham, but a fantastic local greengrocer and award winning deli are the place to stock up on brilliant ingredients and tasty treats from artisan makers. Naturally as a holiday destination, there are plenty of places to start the day with a full English, treat yourself to a traditional afternoon tea at Berni Beans, or unwind at wine bar Chives.

With a renewed sense of vigour in recent years, Hunstanton is a place that attracts young families, professionals and entrepreneurs alike, along with those looking to enjoy their golden years and life at a slower pace. Find out why this is the perfect spot to discover your coastal bolthole.
