“Three words to describe Par Cottage would be spacious, friendly and inviting.”

Located just moments away from vast Norfolk coast and the Championship golf course of Old Hunstanton, you’ll find the appropriately named Par Cottage. Located in one of north Norfolk’s most sought-after roads, this modern three-storey property offers everything you need, complete with a first floor balcony, with views of the Old Hunstanton beach huts.

On the ground floor, a convenient shower room awaits, perfect for washing off after a long day at the beach. Step into the large kitchen/dining room where you can comfortably socialise with family and friends while cooking, with doors leading out to a sitting area.

As you head up to the first floor, prepare to be wowed by the sitting room. This space offers the perfect atmosphere to relax and unwind and boasts its own balcony with stunning sea views. Open the patio doors and let the gentle coastal breeze sweep in on those warm summer days.

On the first floor, you'll find a generously-sized double bedroom boasting an en-suite and plenty of natural light.

Continue up to the top floor and you'll discover a beautiful principal bedroom, complete with built-in wardrobes and a generous, modern en-suite.

Par Cottage also offers the convenience of private parking, which is essential in coastal areas. This is lovely home which offers close proximity to the beach, private parking and is just a short stroll to Old Hunstanton's fine eateries.

“We are very fond of our walks along the golden sands of Old Hunstanton beach.”

ALL THE REASONS

Old Hunstanton

IN NORFOLK
IS THE PLACE TO CALL HOME

It's easy to see why Old Hunstanton is so popular with holidaymakers and full time residents alike. Home to some of the finest properties in the county, there's a wonderful mix of charming cottages, converted barns, and cool, contemporary homes.

Stroll along the top of the famous striped cliffs to take in the lighthouse and the ruins of St Edmunds chapel, built in the 13th century in memory of St Edmund who landed here in 855 to be crowned King of East Anglia.

Perhaps set off for a walk along the coastal path, and at the end of the day save your tired legs by getting the regular Coasthopper bus home.

Golfers are spoilt for choice, with the fantastic links course at Hunstanton Golf Club in the village, and Royal West Norfolk Golf Club's championship course just a few miles away at Brancaster.

After a busy day, relax at The Lodge or the Ancient Mariner, the two great pubs within the village, or treat yourself at Michelin starred The Neptune. For daily provisions there's an excellent village store and there's also a craft centre, wonderful for browsing.

Just the other side of the pine trees, dunes and beach huts you'll find the beautiful beach where days are spent playing on the golden sands and evenings are lit by incredible sunsets over the sea.

Take a trip along the coast road towards Brancaster where you will find some fantastic places to eat including the Thornham Deli with a restaurant, shop and, you guessed it, deli, or stop over at Briarfields Hotel in Titchwell for some great food and drink and beautiful marsh views across to the sea.
