Workshop and premises to the rear of 27 George Street, Drifffield, YO25 6RA

A unique town centre commercial property with residential development potential. The vehicle access from George Street (approximately 3m wide) is between 27 and 26 George Street, and forms part of the property with access rights for number 27 (divided into two flats).

The buildings have been used as a joiner's workshop, builders yard and for the purposes of storage.

Town centre location, the property has potential for residential development/redevelopment, subject to necessary consents first being obtained, in addition to existing commercial uses.

A brick and tile single-storey building adjoins a two-storey brick and tile building with a detached four bay storage building.
