Externally this home is no less impressive. The Garden, with direct access from the Kitchen/Family Room is South Facing and extensive. Excellent for the most energetic and adventurous of children and those with a keen interest in gardening. It is currently a very respectable 'work in progress' in parts (although this is not at all obvious). Excellent, sunny paved patio ideal for alfresco dining. Having recently purchased some additional land the Garden now has a generous level lawn with steps and pathway leading to the 'top' with planted terraced rockery and seating area from which to enjoy the tranquility of the surroundings and wonderful views towards the Lake District fells. There is a useful stone 'store' which houses the oil tank and provides storage. Parking for several vehicles.

All in all a very special and enviable home with beautiful character features and everything the modern family could possibly have on their tick list.
